

Jews Learning About the Koran 101: What you may not know, to help you sort out an understanding of the events of our time.

Presenter: Andre Salz

Background: Islam is a major culture and force in our world. We are bombarded with troubling news, yet we fail to recognize the complexity and meaning beyond headlines.

Description: Andre Salz will share his knowledge and personal experience in an overview as it may impact us as Jews.

1. There is a history to Islam that the west does not well understand, leading to political miscalculations. This needs to be outlined.
2. American Jews tend to see Islamic actions through the western and Christian lens, with responses taken by politicians, not scholars who understand Islam.
3. Jews committed to the survival of Israel mix western ideals into the Mid-eastern world of long antagonisms within Islam.

Cost: None

When: Sunday, February 24, 2019, 10:15 am. Snow date, Sunday, March 3, 2019.

Where: This will be a 90 minute session at Kehilat HaNahar, 85 West Mechanic Street, New Hope, PA 18938. Please join us.

