Poetry Cafe at KHN

KHN members share their original poems

We have within our own KHN community a number of members who write poetry. Come and enjoy listening to the creative works of our members as part of a Friday evening Shabbat service with song and food.

What: A call went out inviting our member poets, and poetry appreciators to read their own work, or work by famous poets. Poems reflecting Jewish life or secular poems are also welcome. Poems reflecting Jewish values can come from any source. Mary Oliver addresses spirituality, Ruth Brin does poems about Torah parshas, Wendell Berry asks us to take care of the environment, Yehudah Amichai gives us the experience of the birth of Israel.

When: Friday evening February 22, 2019, 7:00 pm.

Where: Kehilat HaNahar. We ask that you bring Jewishly snacks to share. Evening led by Rabbi Diana, poetry component led by Abraham Leibson and Jennifer Fritch.
