

Synagogues of Philadelphia

History of 500 Synagogues in Our Five County Area

From his newly published book, author Ira A. Poliakoff will present a lively, interactive account of Philadelphia area synagogues using many rare photos that might have been the spiritual home of

Featuring Ira A. Poliakoff

Author of award-winning Synagogues of Long Island, Ira is a husband, father, grandfather and businessman who has always been active in synagogue activities, from youth director, field director and continuing involvement in synagogue life. His illustrated talk traces the history of the Jewish people in Philadelphia through the eyes of more than 500 synagogue communities that have existed in our five county Philadelphia region.

your grandparents.

Sunday, May 5, 12:00 pm to 1 pm
Bagels, cream cheese and coffee provided.
Free and open to the public

KEHILAT HANA HAR

The Little Shul by the River

85 W. Mechanic St New Hope, PA 18938
www.kehilathanahar.org

For further information, please call 215-862-1912